Combat Commander expertly takes tried and true historical weapon designs and updates them for modern warfare. The Trench Knife is a sleek and modern, battle-ready version of the iconic trench knife. It has a 7 1/2" 1065 high carbon steel blade with a hard, black coating. The traditional knuckle knife handle has been given a tactical upgrade and features a skull crusher pommel. The handle is of cast metal with no-slip rubberized grip inserts. A nylon sheath with fastening grommets houses the blade.
