Whether you're building a shelter, preparing food, or facing unexpected challenges in a survival situation, you need a knife you can rely on—one that overcomes every obstacle. Meet the perfect companion for any outdoor adventure: Republic, the new, rugged drop-point bushcraft knife from Cold Steel.

Proudly made in the USA, the Republic features a powerful S35VN steel blade measuring 25.4 cm (10 inches) in length, with an HRC58-60 hardness rating and a robust 3.9mm thickness. Its precise craftsmanship makes it a versatile and dependable tool that excels even in the most demanding wilderness conditions. The durable Ionbond coating not only protects against corrosion but also gives the knife a modern, tactical look appreciated by every adventure enthusiast.

Weighing just 238 grams (8.4 ounces), the Republic is extremely comfortable to carry, even in the included premium leather sheath. The Micarta handle ensures a secure grip, minimizing the risk of slipping even in wet conditions. What's more, the handle is easily removable, allowing you to quickly adapt the knife to your needs in any situation. Jimping and a choil on the blade provide extra control and precision for delicate tasks, while the integrated lanyard hole offers multiple carry options—attach the knife to your gear or wrist so it's always within reach.
