The Talwar knife was created to pay tribute to the Indo-Persian saber of the same name. The knife was designed by famous creator Andrew Demko and Cold Steel president Lynn C Thompson. The blade made of S35VN steel has a flat grind, with a curved cutting edge, thanks to which it provides cutting and piercing power that has been unavailable so far in folding knives. The razor-sharp Talwar knife is completed with a unique textured and contoured G-10 handle with finger recesses for added comfort and safety. The knife is equipped with a Tri-Ad lock. You can draw it faster than any other knife, our Talwar is equipped with a revolutionary system thumb opening plate of Andrew'a Demko, you can open it at lightning speed when you pull it out of your pocket.
