The Kimen Knife takes its name from the "Mapudungun" language which means "Teach-Learn." This tool was created by its designer with the purpose of introducing children to the knowledge of bushcraft and survival skills. Its design is very safe, with a rounded tip and a handle design that prevents the hand from moving forward. It can also be used by adults, as a complementary knife.

CONDOR TOOL & KNIFE traces its proud history back to 1787, the year GERB WEYESBERG COMPANY was founded in Solingen, Germany.

The quality of the swords, military knives, agricultural tools and household cutlery they manufactured made Solingen the cutlery capital of the world. Over the generations, the world's largest manufacturer of swords and knives found it necessary to expand operations to other countries to better serve its customers.
