Our steel sword hangers provide an economical and sturdy solution for displaying any Japanese-style or medieval sword on a wall. Supplied in pairs in either nickel plated (OH2378) or black powder-coated (OH2377) finish, the hangers can be arranged to display the sword either horizontally or at an angle and are supplied with mounting screws (wall-board or sheet-rock mounting will also require wall anchors). Both styles have plastic-covered hooks, to avoid damage to Saya finishes. Simple and unobtrusive, these hangers are designed to focus attention on the piece being displayed.
