Master Cutlery in our range

The current store profile includes folding and fixed-blade knives, Japanese and display swords, multitools, blowguns, wooden training weapons and display accessories. Movie-inspired and fantasy designs are also represented.

What to compare

- For knives, review the steel, blade length, lock and carry method.
- For swords, check whether the product is described for display, collecting or training.
- For training weapons, match material, weight and length to the discipline and drill.

Safety requirements and permitted use should always be taken from the specification of the individual item.
