Here's a strong and safe way to practice weapon sparring or train blocking drills. Covered with sturdy black vinyl, these PVC core practice weapons are balanced for optimal use. Three different sizes simulate different weights of weapons, from short swords and sticks to long two-handed weapons. They're perfect for sparring against each other, or training disarms. Great for teaching kids how to block properly! A really fun training tool! As always, maximum safety precautions should be used in any sort of contact sport. Practice should be under the supervision of a trained expert and eye protection and other safety gear is recommended.
