Master knifemaker Gil Hibben has teamed up with the talents of fantasy artist Kit Rae for this 2003 edition of the Hibben Annual Fantasy Knife Series, and together they have created a brilliant work of art surpassing all boundaries in the knife industry today! Eye of Drakonus is produced using the finest grade materials and workmanship. Features include solid metal handle parts and dragon scale grips with the "Eye of the Dragon" in the textured design. Four unique 420 stainless steel blades complement the handle design and the main fantasy style blade bears the precision laser-etched signatures of the fantasy knife designers. This annual series is eagerly awaited by collectors each year and the Eye of Drakonus is destined to become a top seller, continuing the tradition established by every previous edition in the series. Blade Material: Tempered, 420 J2 stainless steel, single-edged (false-edged top). HANDLE: Solid metal handle parts, polished black chrome finish, textured acrylic handgrips, antique red finish, rat-tail tang construction.

Product parameters:

- Total length: 41,9 cm
- Blade length: 23,1 cm
- Blade thickness: 4,6 mm
