Honshu is known for its savage blend of tradition and innovation that forges a style and function in its modern, battle-ready weapons that's beyond compare. The Karito Tomahawk Axe has a hundreds of years old blade profile that has been proven in battle. The 7Cr13 stainless steel tomahawk axe head is 9 3/10" with a razor-sharp 3 9/10" blade and weight-reducing thru-holes. The EDM textured and finger-grooved, grippy handle is crafted of injection-molded nylon and features a lanyard hole.
