The Honshu Midnight Forge Executioner Axe is a weapon that impresses at first sight. It features a black, double-headed bearded blade crafted from durable 7Cr13 stainless steel, ensuring strength, resilience, and razor-sharp performance. Its unique design with weight-reducing thru-holes makes the axe lighter, easier to handle, and more precise in every swing.

The reinforced nylon handle with a textured EDM surface provides a secure and stable grip, while the genuine leather sheath allows for safe and convenient carry.

Perfect for weapon collectors, outdoor enthusiasts, survivalists, and fans of historical reenactments, this executioner axe combines functionality, craftsmanship, and striking design.
