Proud and strong-willed, the Dwarves of Middle-earth were skilled in the arts of smithing and metallurgy. Like many Dwarves, Gimli, son of Gloin, favours the axe as his primary weapon. Accompanying his father to the Council of Elrond at Rivendell, Gimli is chosen to represent the Dwarves in the Fellowship of the Ring. A mighty warrior, he is quick to draw his broad axes in battle, hunting Orcs across Rohan with Aragorn and Legolas, the elf with whom he is famed for their fast friendship. Where Gimli is lacking in subtly, he makes up for in loyalty and a noble spirit. Prepared for as many different situations as possible, he carries the Walking Axe with him, along with the Battle Axe, Bearded Axe, and two throwing axes.
