The Colombian Survival Spear was designed to withstand the demands of a mighty warrior. To keep up with a warrior, a spear must be indestructible and shock-resistant. It must be sharp enough to pierce any object. The Colombian Survival Spear features a SK5 high carbon steel blade with a black oxide coating and satin finish edge that has been welded to a thick injection-molded nylon with fiberfill shaft. This spear can be used in a variety of ways but always gets the job done! Includes a heavy-duty black nylon sheath with snap button closures.
