The 1840 Non-Commissioned Officer (NCO) sword was carried by American soldiers for over 70 years, a period encompassing the Mexican War, the Civil War, and the Spanish-American War. The blade features a single, broad fuller running from the ricasso to near the point. The entire hilt is cast brass, and the grip is ribbed. The pommel is globular with a capstan. The grip is flanked by kidney-shaped handguards. Steel: 1065 High Carbon. The 1840 NCO sword comes with a steel scabbard.
