This fixed-blade military knife features an innovative recurve blade designed for multi-tasking versatility, minimal mass, and maximum performance. This blade design provides ideal leverage in tough cutting situations and a precisely centered point to handle piercing tasks with ease. The blade is built of CPM3V tool steel with black Tungsten DLC (Diamond Like Carbon) non-reflective coating. CPM3V tool steel provides maximum resistance to breaking and chipping and is highly wear resistant. It's built for impact toughness and to perform under the harshest field conditions. Includes nylon sheath with MOLLE compatible, multi-carry configuration webbing and universal pouch.
